Felt For Revival Korea Truce Talks

Use Of UN Planes Is New Issue

Another Liaison Meeting Booked

TOKYO, Oct. 19.—Optimism was expressed by officials tonight on the prospects for early revival of the long-dormant Korea armistice conference.

This feeling was based on Communist acceptance of a United Nations compromise offer to set up security zones of three miles in radius around the Red delegation camp in Kaesong and the UN base in Munsan.

The chief question remaining to be settled at the liaison meetings in Panmunjom was the issue of whether warplanes shall be permitted to fly over the attack-free areas.

This problem is to be tackled at a tenth liaison session set for 10 o'clock Saturday morning (8 p. m. Friday EST).

Allied and Red liaison officers talked for one hour and 45 minutes Friday in Panmunjom, the four-but village mutually selected as the new site of the armistice negotiations which the Communists suspended Aug. 23.

It was at this ninth meeting that the Communists agreed to the UN compromise proposal for attack-free areas with a radius of three miles each around Kaesong and Munsan.

KAESONG, where the cease-fire parley began July 10, lies six miles west-northwest of Panmunjom which in turn is 12 miles northwest of Allied-occupied Munsan.

Following the day's adjournment of Friday's meeting, Airforce Col. Andrew J. Kinney, chief UN liaison officer, emerged from the tent where the talks are being held and told newsmen:

"I think it is going to work out all right."

Meanwhile, tank-led Allied troops ground within two and a half miles of pivotal Kumsong on North Korea's central front in a three-pronged assault against reinforced Chinese Reds.

In the west, UN forces climaxed a bloody battle northwest of Yonchon by capturing three key peaks after Chinese troops suddenly fled their hilltop positions under a terrific UN aerial pounding.

Intensive fighting raged also along Korea's east coastal flank where South Korean troops beat off two strong counterattacks by North Koreans below Kosong.

In mountainous mid-Korea, U.S. 24th Division and South Korean troops jumped off in a Friday morning mission on a renewed drive against Kumsong from the south, southwest and east.

Supported by tanks as well as artillery, they struck along an eight-mile front against fresh Chinese forces powerfully entrenched in the hills commanding the approaches to the rail-highway center.

Armed Bandits Hold Up Women, Flee With $163

Two Pickaway County women were roused from their sleep early Friday morning by armed robbers who hid their identity behind a flashlight beam while they stole $163.

The robbery took place in Darby Tavern at the junction of Routes 62 and 762 near Harrisburg at 4:05 a. m. Elsie Mason, proprietor, and her daughter, Geneva, told Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Jack Dewey they were awakened by two armed men who entered their bedroom.

They said the men kept a flashlight beamed in the women's eyes. A third man was thought to be in the tavern room. The robbers entered the tavern by forcing a side door open.

The sheriff's department was called a few minutes after the men left. The men got away in an auto.

Later Friday morning Sheriff Charles Radcliff received a report that intruders had broken open a safe in the Eschelman and Hill grain elevator in Derby. They entered by prying open a window. They reportedly stole between $350 and $400, and possibly some radios and electrical appliances.

World News Briefs

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Oct. 19.—Opening of history's first atomic war games was suddenly cancelled today when threatening clouds gathered over bleak Frenchman's Flat. The unfavorable atmospheric conditions reportedly militated against the torching of the atomic which may well revolutionize every concept of modern ground warfare.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The nation's railroads today asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve the full 15 percent freight rate increase they asked for last March. This would mean an increase of 7.2 percent in freight rates above those granted last Aug. 2.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The American Medical Association declared today the nation must build huge stockpiles of human blood for atomic-war emergencies because synthetic blood substitutes—once hailed as the answer to the problem—are not effective.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Reliable sources said today that President Truman tentatively plans to leave Washington about Nov. 8 for an extended work-and-rest vacation at Key, West, Fla.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 19.—Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer today came out in favor of government economy, but he said the only way left to cut expenses is to reduce government services. The cabinet officer said that "I can conceive of no large saving of federal funds—the taxpayers' money—except by eliminating things which the government does."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Speaker Rayburn, (D) Tex., predicted flatly today that the House will approve the second compromise tax increase bill. He said the $5.69 billion bill will be taken up after the House has disposed of the postal employees and general federal pay increase bills.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Defense Department reported today that the North Korean and Chinese Communists sustained 26,506 casualties in the week ending Oct. 10 to bring their total losses in the Korean war to 1,373,229.

Pheasant Costs $53.95 A Pound

Wild fowl meat down in Whisler can get expensive—as high as $53.95 a pound.

Clayton Newhouse, 69, of Whisler paid a fine of $100 and court costs of $7.90 Friday morning for shooting a pheasant out of season.

Game Protector Clarence Francis, who made the arrest, said Newhouse shot the two-pound bird in a field near the Newhouse home. He pleaded guilty and was fined when arraigned before Magistrate Oscar Root.

Pheasant season, Francis noted, does not open until Nov. 15.

VAST VARIETY IS DISPLAYED

Animals Take Over Town During Annual Pet Parade

Thursday was the day the animals took over Circleville for an hour or so. They appeared in wide variety of costumes and displayed emotions ranging from tail-wagging joy to feline boredom.

It all happened during the Pumpkin Show Pet Parade, sponsored by Circleville Kiwanis Club.

There were cats in baskets, rabbits in cages, dogs on wagons, a raccoon on a leash and a monkey in a baby carriage.

There were also boys and girls riding gaily decorated bicycles.

Music Soothes, But Not A Dog Named 'Taffy'

Music hath charm; it soothes; it calms the spirit; it lifts the morale. But Taffy didn't know that. Neither did he care.

So when the drums drummed and the cymbals cymballed and the trumpets trumpeted in Thursday's Pumpkin Show pet parade, Taffy dropped his tail and lifted the rest of him out of there hence and forth with and in one heck of a hurry.

And that left Brian Bell, age seven, of North Court street, with a leash and empty collar in hand, but no dog to parade. He had nominated Taffy, a mongrel who had everything in his background but courage, for the honor of accompanying him on a band-guided tour of downtown Circleville.

But everything was made all right by Mrs. Richard McAlister, of Montclair avenue, a bystander, who waived away the storm clouds by awarding Brian a dollar and naming him:

"Typical Boy Minus His Pet."

Judging of the pets took place on Watt street immediately after the parade. Judges were Robert Beard and Mrs. Donald Black of Chillicothe, the Howard Lloyd of Columbus, William Howard of Portsmouth, Mrs. Fairy Alkire of Kingstown, Route 1 and the Rev. Joseph C. Snyder of Mt. Sterling.

Prizes were as follows:
Typical boy and his pet: First places to Danny Richards and Larry Peters; second, Steven Yost; third, Alex Cook.

Typical girl and her pet: First, Lynda Leist; second, Carrol Wiler; third, Joan Frost.

Novel display (boys and girls) decorated wagons etc., with pets: First, Dianne Elliott, dog in a cart; second, Roe Riegel, dog and wagon; third, Larry Downs, farm wagon; fourth, Gary George, Jack Moats, Niels Johnson and Dolly Marshall, family going hunting.

Unusual pets: First, Linda Emerine, monkey; second, Antoinette Wojciak, rabbit on wagon; third, Barbara Jo McMill, webfoot cat.

Greatest number of pets shown by one person: First, Earl Gulich, six rabbits and 14 chickens; second, John Dunlap, 10 dogs; third, Carolyn Jean Burns, six rabbits.

Best boy's bike: First, Dennis Lutz; second, Earl Ford; third, Jeff Lutz.

Best girl's bike: First, Jill Carol Jenkins; second, Margie Leach; third, Diane Johnson.

PONIES: First, Gayle Roshon; second, Carol Jane Sawyer; third, Tommy Bausum.

Best dressed dog: First, Robert Duffy Hedges; second, Sylvia Smith.

Best dressed cat: First, Brenda Mary Johnson; second, Michael Alkire.

Special awards: Shirley Thompson, Harriet Hall, Mary Wolfe and Arthur Hoy.

NEW ATTENDANCE

Pumpkin Show Aided By Pe

On the eve of Circleville's annual Fall festival, it was reported that the city was "all prepared for its pumpkinification"—its "extravagant glorification."

As the 45th Pumpkin Show completed its first half and rolled Friday toward the finale, it appeared that the glorification wasn't extravagant at all.

At least the mass of humanity which showed up for the affair didn't consider it so—or didn't care.

And that "mass of humanity" was showing up in larger globs all the time.

Wednesday, the estimated attendance was 40,000.

Thursday, the estimated attendance was 60,000.

With Mr. Weatherman again smiling Circleville way, nothing is in sight which would put a damper on the big show.

FRIDAY afternoon's forecast called for cloudy, windy and cool with a high temperature of 55 and a low by night of 38. Saturday is slated to be fair and cool with an afternoon high of 55. In other words—perfect weather.

With this prediction, Pumpkin Show officials were gleefully rubbing their hands and proclaiming that the Friday-Saturday totals would bring the grand total to above 1949's record attendance of 235,000.

The Wednesday-Thursday total this year of 100,000 is 10,000 behind the 1949 two-day total, but in '49 the rains came cold and dismal on Friday and the total was curbed.

But Saturday dawned bright and clear and the day's total was tabbed at 80,000, thus bringing the total for the four days to the 235,000 figure.

Thursday's turnout this year developed in the same pattern as did Wednesday's—a comparatively slim afternoon gallery. But with

Officials Due Here Saturday

State officials other than Governor Lausche are expected to pay a visit to the Circleville Pumpkin Show Saturday night.

With the chief executive are to come, local show backers have been advised, Howard Faust, state director of agriculture; and Clark W. VanSchoik, Pickaway County State Representative Ed Wallace is expected to join the entourage.

THIS VEILED "LADY" actually is a boy—Robert Duffy Hedges of North Court street who took a prize in the Pet Parade at Pumpkin Show Thursday. Young Hedges combined with his dog, Brownie, and entered competition as "Girl and Escort."

"FAMILY GOING HUNTING" is the title of this entry which appeared in Thursday's Pet Parade. It won a prize, was headed by the pony, Tiny. Youngsters in the wagon are Niels Johnson of Circleville Route 4 and Dolly Marshall and Gary George, both of Circleville Route 3. Barely visible is the "family's" dog, Snarky.

MORE ARMS RUSHED TO SCENE

Egyptians Accuse British Of Aggression In Suez

CAIRO, Oct. 19.—Egypt accused Britain of "aggression" in the riot-torn Suez Canal Zone today amid a bristling show of British strength in the form of naval and troops reinforcements to the area.

The charge of aggression was made in a note presented at the British embassy in Cairo by the Egyptian foreign ministry.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Salah El-Din denied, however, that Egypt plans to complain to the United Nations Security Council in its dispute with Britain.

The show of British strength in the Suez area, emphasized by the arrival today of the 8,000-ton Cruiser Gambia off Port Said, served to heighten the tension in an atmosphere charged with threats of new violence.

THE MASSING of British might, following riots and armed battles that already have caused scores of deaths and injuries, underscored a statement by Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison that come what may Britain will "stick it" in the Suez area.

Egypt's Higher National Committee launched today a "passive resistance" movement against Britain, but the extremist Moslem Brotherhood said it is planning "struggle squads" to carry on the fight to oust British forces.

The Moslem Brotherhood, charged with assassinations of moderate Egyptian statesmen, is in the forefront of groups demanding war with Britain.

The crisis was brought to a head by the Egyptian parliament's abrogation of treaties giving the British the right to maintain troops at Suez, and providing for joint British-Egyptian control of the Sudan.

In its pacifist campaign, as contrasted with the violent methods of Egyptian extremists, the Higher National Committee circulated a "struggle charter" calling for such steps as boycotting of British goods.

UN Shelves Iran Dispute

FLUSHING MEADOW, Oct. 19.—The UN Security Council today shelved the British complaint against Iran on the oil dispute.

The action was decided on pending a ruling by the International Court of Justice on whether the UN is empowered to intervene in the interest of peace.

ANNUAL PET PARADE always produces some animals in hollowed-out pumpkins. One of them Thursday was this girl and her cat combination. The youngster is Marilyn Hardesty of Circleville Route 3. Her father, Herman Hardesty, grew the 1950 grand champion pumpkin. There was also a rabbit in a pumpkin mounted on a toy auto.

Pumpkin Show Rolls Along Aided By Perfect Weather

at the head of the Thursday parade, reported that the "crowd was just as thick far down on East Franklin street as it was on West Main."

The parade, which, like the Miss Pumpkin Show procession, was halted frequently as police officers attempted to make room for approaching floats and bands, took 19 minutes to pass a given point.

Order of procession was: City and state police officers, Co. I color guard, Circleville high school band, Miss Pumpkin Show and Little Miss Pumpkin Show and their respective attendants, the two healthiest youngsters in Pickaway County—Ronnie Rivers (state champion) and Mariah Bach, both of Monroe Township; Bellefontaine Legion drum and bugle corps, U.S. Navy "duck," Jackson Township Girls Athletic Association float, Canal Winchester high school band, Lutheran Family Circle float, Scioto FFA float, U. S. Navy color guard, Circleville Legion drum and bugle corps.

Driving Exams To Be Given

Circleville's driver examinations, formerly given in the state highway garage, will be given at 219 South Court street beginning Oct. 26.

State Highway Patrolman Clyde Wells said the location of the testing office has been moved just across the alley south of Pickaway Courthouse, in the basement where licenses formerly were sold.

Persons holding temporary driving permits will be eligible for examinations every Friday after Oct. 26 from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. and on every Saturday from 9 a. m. until noon.

Wells said candidates for licenses must furnish their own vehicles. The tests are administered by Ross Hamilton.

Precinct 2B Changed Again

The location of Circleville voting precinct 2B has been changed for the second time this month.

Board of elections officials said the precinct will be located in the rear of the Franklin Street school basement for the Nov. elections.

Formerly it was in the Shellhammer garage on East Mound street, was changed from there to William Essick's laundry.

Canning Firm's Label Slated To 'Come To Life'

The dominating figure on the label used by a Circleville cannery has come to life—fourfold.

Esmeralda Canning Co. spokesmen said that their label "Country Colonel" is duplicated by a Columbus male quartet and that the group will appear at Pumpkin Show Saturday night.

The barber shop combine, which has called itself the "Country Colonels" for years, was not aware that its uniforms duplicated that of the local cannery label, J. I. Smith, Esmeralda chieftain reported.

The quartet is made up of Columbus businessmen who go in for barber shop singing as a hobby. The group is headed by Clark W. VanSchoik, chief of Ohio's Division of Foods and Dairies.

German Labor Irked At Talk

BONN, Oct. 19.—A major political crisis is in the making today for the West German government as a result of a cabinet minister's broadcast berating labor unions.

The trade unions broke with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's coalition government and said their cooperation is at an end because Justice Minister Thomas Dehler charged the unions are responsible for delays in the country's postwar recovery.

"We will introduce him from the Court and Main platform," Colville said, "and we may ask him for a short speech."

Laurelville Man Questioned On Fatal Accident

Pickaway County authorities earlier this week arrested George Bobst, 48, of Laurelville in Washington C. H., where he was recovering from injuries suffered Sunday afternoon in an auto mishap just north of New Holland.

Bobst, owner of the auto in which Millard Gilmore of Washington C. H., the driver, was killed, was arrested on an accusation of permitting an intoxicated man to operate his car.

In addition, local authorities have rechecked the Bobst auto and plan to question the man more fully about the accident in which Gilmore was fatally injured.

Officials here reported that at first examination last Sunday it was believed Gilmore's death, resulting from a basal skull fracture, might have been caused when the man's head hit against the top of the auto.

Later developments in the investigation, however, require a more extensive examination of the facts, officials said.

Pumpkin Show Rolls Along Aided By Perfect Weather

(Continued from Page One) at the head of the Thursday parade, reported that the "crowd was just as thick far down on East Franklin street as it was on West Main."

The music parade, which, like the Miss Pumpkin Show procession, was halted frequently as police officers attempted to make room for approaching floats and bands, took 19 minutes to pass a given point.

Order of procession was: City and state police officers, Co. I color guard, Circleville high school band, Miss Pumpkin Show and their respective attendants, the two healthiest youngsters in Pickaway County—Ronnie Rivers (state champion) and Mariam Bach, both of Monroe Township; Bellefontaine Legion drum and bugle corps, U.S. Navy "duck," Jackson Township Girls Athletic Association float, Canal Winchester high school band, Lutheran Family Circle float, Scioto FFA float, U. S. Navy color guard, Circleville Legion drum and bugle corps.

GYPSY ROAMERS float, Presbyterian Youth float, Fox Future Farmers float, Grove City high school band, Kiwanis Club float, Methodist Youth Fellowship float, Washington C. H. high school band, Congo tribe, Rifle Equipment float, Bill Cook float, Welcome Wagon, Mt. Sterling high school band, Esmeralda float, Walnut FFA float, Bill Kellstadt's antique hose wagon, Forestville Legion drum and bugle corps and Rotary Club float.

Friday afternoon's menu was to be topped by the annual Baby Parade and Friday night will bring the big Industrial Parade.

This latter event last year was more than a mile long and took about 70-odd minutes to pass a given point.

Saturday, the windup day, will have an afternoon crammed with fun—contests in milk-drinking, hog-calling and pie-eating (pumpkin pie, of course) plus the annual Winners' Parade.

And Saturday night—the night it generally takes at least 45 minutes to walk a block in the Pumpkin Show crowd—will be featured by: (1) The official visit of Gov. Frank J. Lausche

(2) The crowning of the grand champion pumpkin pie baker with the winner getting a deluxe electric range and the governor getting the prize pie.

German Labor Irked At Talk
BOON, Oct. 19.—A major political crisis is in the making today for the West German government as a result of a cabinet minister's broadcast berating labor unions.

The trade unions broke with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's coalition government and said their cooperation is at an end because Justice Minister Thomas Dehler charged the unions are responsible for delays in the country's postwar recovery.

One of the featured guests to Friday's Circleville Pumpkin Show was to have been Roger W. Tracy, treasurer of the state of Ohio.

Republican Tracy was to have been special guest of Robert Colville, Pickaway County's Democrat treasurer and Circleville's Mr. Pumpkin Show.

"We will introduce him from the Court and Main platform," Colville said, "and we may ask him for a short speech."

Laurelville Man Questioned On Fatal Accident

Pickaway County authorities earlier this week arrested George Bobst, 48, of Laurelville in Washington C. H., where he was recovering from injuries suffered Sunday afternoon in an auto mishap just north of New Holland.

Bobst, owner of the auto in which Millard Gilmore of Washington C. H., the driver, was killed, was arrested on an accusation of permitting an intoxicated man to operate his car.

In addition, local authorities have rechecked the Bobst auto and plan to question the man more fully about the accident in which Gilmore was fatally injured.

Officials here reported that at first examination last Sunday it was believed Gilmore's death, resulting from a basal skull fracture, might have been caused when the man's head hit against the top of the auto.

Later developments in the investigation, however, require a more extensive examination of the facts, officials said.

Friends may call in the funeral home after 7 p. m. Friday.

DAVID R. SMITH
David Russell Smith, aged 17 months, died Friday morning in his home, 151 East Mill street.

He was born March 7, 1950, the son of Marvin and Hazel Hinty Smith. He is survived by the parents, two sisters, Edna Louise Smith and Rose Mary Smith of the home; a grandfather, George W. Smith of Lovess Lane; and a grandmother, Mrs. Edna Hinty of Chillicothe.

Private funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Saturday in Deffenbaugh funeral home with the Rev. Alonzo Hill officiating. Burial will be in Forest cemetery. The casket will not be opened.

Driving Exams To Be Given

Circleville's driver examinations, formerly given in the state highway garage, will be given at 219 South Court street beginning Oct. 26.

State Highway Patrolman Clyde Wells said the location of the testing office has been moved just across the alley south of Pickaway Courthouse, in the basement where licenses formerly were sold.

Persons holding temporary driving permits will be eligible for examinations every Friday after Oct. 26 from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. and on every Saturday from 9 a. m. until noon.

Wells said candidates for licenses must furnish their own vehicles. The tests are administered by Ross Hamilton.

Precinct 2B Changed Again

The location of Circleville voting precinct 2B has been changed for the second time this month.

Board of elections officials said the precinct will be located in the rear of the Franklin Street school basement for the Nov. elections.

Formerly it was in the Shellhammer garage on East Mound street, was changed from there to William Essick's laundry.

ELLEN BLUE PACES EXHIBIT

Circleville Girl Awarded Top Poultry Show Prize

Ellen Blue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blue of Watt street, won the top award in the 1951 Circleville Pumpkin Show poultry show.

The Circleville girl's Cornish cock entry in the standard chicken class was named best of show during this year's expanded exhibit.

Actually, the top award was received by the city lass after her entry had been named best Cock of the Cornish class, best standard chicken of show and finally champion of show.

Although several other of her entries won awards, the grand champion Cornish cock gave her a $10 savings account with the First National Bank; a 100-pound bag of feed from the Ralston Purina Co.; and a $1 prize.

Other standout winners in the chicken show were a white Leghorn owned by Mrs. Mabel Bircher, Circleville Route 3, best standard chicken female; a Cornish bantam owned by Don Davis, North Court street, best male bantam; and a silk pullet owned by E. L. DeLong of 223 Logan street, best female bantam.

Mrs. Mabel Bircher received a 100-pound bag of feed from Ralston Purina, while Davis and DeLong each received 100-pound bags of feed from the Eshelman Mill.

In addition to the large chicken show, entries in rabbits, turkeys, geese and ducks swelled the exhibit to its bursting point with more than 200 exhibits on hand.

Bus Palm, director of the show, said the unusually large show caused doubling up in the cages.

ELLEN BLUE PACES EXHIBIT

Circleville Girl Awarded Top Poultry Show Prize

Ellen Blue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blue of Watt street, won the top award in the 1951 Circleville Pumpkin Show poultry show.

The Circleville girl's Cornish cock entry in the standard chicken class was named best of show during this year's expanded exhibit.

Actually, the top award was received by the city lass after her entry had been named best Cock of the Cornish class, best standard chicken of show and finally champion of show.

Although several other of her entries won awards, the grand champion Cornish cock gave her a $10 savings account with the First National Bank; a 100-pound bag of feed from the Ralston Purina Co.; and a $1 first prize.

Other standout winners in the chicken show were a white Leghorn owned by Mrs. Mabel Bircher, Circleville Route 3, best standard chicken female; a Cornish bantam owned by Don Davis, North Court street, best male bantam; and a silk pullet owned by E. L. DeLong of 223 Logan street, best female bantam.

Mrs. Mabel Bircher received a 100-pound bag of feed from Ralston Purina, while Davis and DeLong each received 100-pound bags of feed from the Eschelman Mill.

In addition to the large chicken show, entries in rabbits, turkeys, geese and ducks swelled the exhibit to its bursting point with more than 200 exhibits on hand.

Bus Palm, director of the show, said the unusually large show caused doubling up in the cages.

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW
IN THE absence of a declared war, and the establishment of an official board of censorship, President Truman will find it difficult to impose restrictions on the news, which he is now attempting to do. He has told federal agencies they must not make public their numerous directives, and has asked newspapers to suppress information which conceivably might bear on security.

Intended, presumably, to keep information from reaching Russia, the President's ukase overlooks the fact Russia still maintains diplomatic and news contacts in Washington and at the United Nations, and has complete access to all information the President is trying to keep from the American people.

Only confusion has resulted from the President's most recent manifestation of petulance. With so-called vital information in the hands of thousands of federal employees, how is the President going to keep it from spreading to members of their families, friends, neighbors?

A member of the top brass is to make a speech to 600 businessmen in Dallas. Because it will be off the record, newspaper reports will be excluded. Regardless of the integrity of the 600 being taken into confidence, no one can be naive enough to believe it will go no farther.

What 600 know will be passed on, inadvertently perhaps, to 6,000 or 60,000 by word of mouth. And the story as many of these receive it would be unrecognizable by the top brass who is to make the speech.
It would be far better to permit the free press to operate in the American way and print an accurate report of the speech.

If Russia knows everything anyway, what is the motive in keeping the American people in the dark?

TAFT'S CANDIDACY
THE report that General MacArthur would support Senator Taft for the Republican nomination for President left little doubt that the Senator would eventually announce his candidacy. Powerful party elements in a dozen states have recently pledged their support to the Ohio Senator's candidacy. Privately, the Taft forces estimate Taft has more than 400 delegates in the bag as of this moment.

Senator Taft is no novice in the field of marshaling delegates for the nomination.
He was a leading contender in 1940, when he was eulogized out of the nomination by the Willkie blitz, and again in 1948. He is a member of a presidential family and was weaned on politics.

The Ohioan is rapidly surrounding himself with a winner's aura, although the convention is still eight months in the future. In addition to the 400 delegates confidently claimed, backers of the senator's candidacy are highly optimistic of obtaining the delegates of several large states on the first ballot, including Pennsylvania.

Truman to Run Again,
Say Political Experts

Loyalty to His Party
Seen Deciding Factor

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Political experts are increasing indications that President Truman will seek re-election although the Chief Executive stays mum on the subject.

Many of the experts go along with reports that Mr. Truman actually has no personal desire for another White House term but argue that his loyalty to party, learned in the Kansas City school, will force him into the campaign.

The experts point out that Democratic chances of staying in power depend largely on another Truman "whistle stop" campaign. They also depend on his making the race, rather than some newcomer, even one sponsored by the present chief executive.

With those factors in mind, politicians say they are convinced Mr. Truman will decide to run again.
They say he will not let down his fellow politicians if he can be convinced that is the only way the Democrats can stick in the saddle.

George E. Sokolsky's
These Days

If the Moslems succeed in forcing Great Britain out of the Middle East, little of importance will be left to the empire but the self-governing dominions. To Disraeli, India was the richest jewel in Victoria's crown—and when India was lost, the empire moved on its march of death.

From Elizabeth to Victoria, the British built an amazing world out of sea power.
They pushed Spain and Holland aside, defeated France and combining military zeal with commercial skill brought the continent together by ships and goods and the movement of men and money. Truthfully, it could be said that the sun never set on the Union Jack or for that matter on British trade.

It was England's German king, George III, and his stupid ministers who lost the thirteen American colonies. Such British statesmen as Burke and Pitt understood the error in their day and fought hard against the king's and Lord North's lack of statesmanship.

The United States of America came into being, but the northern colonies, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, and other areas taken from France eventually became Canada and remained loyal.

British policy in Europe and Asia had ever been to permit no power to overwhelm either continent. In the balance of power, Great Britain played the middleman's role and profitably survived most wars.

However, the balance of power could not maintain the peace of Europe as long as the pressures of nationalism burst forth like geysers. British policy has generally been to discourage nationalism such as Joan of Arc or the French Revolution or the Germany of Bismarck produced. Even the Italy of Mazzini frightened the British, as did, in time, the Italy of Mussolini. If only the world would stay put, the British could always keep open the avenues of commerce.

But the world would not stay put and always so-called weak and backward nations pressed their claims upon the strong and decaying powers. The Crimean War saved Turkey from an emerging Russia but it did not save Turkey from its own decay, just as all the agreements and treaties defining colonial spheres of influence in Asia and Africa staved off war in the first decade of the 20th Century, but not in the second decade, nor in the third and fourth.

It is Moslem nationalism which now faces Britain in Egypt, Iran, Iraq, and, it is to be assumed, everywhere in Asia as far as Pakistan. It is not only that the Moslems feel the growing pains of resurrected nationalism, but as a practical matter, it no longer pays to be tied in with British policy or British trade. This is the price that Great Britain is having to pay for two wars out of which she came politically victorious and economically damaged.

Since World War I, what remained of the Turkish empire in the Middle East was carved up among the great Moslem families into Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Jordan. Persia was changed into Iran; Palestine became Israel; Syria and Lebanon became sovereign; forgotten Yemen emerged. And oil made the Moslems rich—richer than they had been in all their history since Mohammed went on the hegira from Mecca to Medina.

The Moslem world does not want to be restrained. It is on the march from Pakistan to North Africa. It is a world that can no longer be ignored. It has the will to establish itself as the third great power—the United States, Soviet Russia and Islam. A powerful nationalistic leaven moves all of Asia—East Asia and West Asia, from the Pacific to the Mediterranean. Not Russia, Britain or America will stop this movement.

CHAPTER THIRTY-FOUR
THE NEW FUR coat had been bought for Anne to wear back to Miss Harper's school. It was paid for now, but it had never been worn. The manufacturer's tag hung to it still. Harrison cut it off with his knife, helped her to wrap herself in it, steadied her down the steps, lifted her into the car to the back seat where there was room for the cast to lie straight.

"You can't see a thing," he argued as he drove through the Christmas-gala streets where strands of colored lights hung and a papier-mache Santa beamed from every light pole. "Anyway I'd want to talk to your mother about any change. She'll certainly come home for Christmas." He spoke with more confidence than he felt.

"Deke and I packed her box today," Anne said, "just in case. I put in some of those rosy pearls from you, but she'll know it's not your writing on the card. Suppose she won't come, Dad—suppose she won't come back, ever?"

"Don't borrow trouble, Anne," he urged. "Your mother is not going to abandon you kids. I'll send her some money to buy herself something extravagant. That's what a gift ought to be—an extravagance."

Driving along with Anne, Harrison said: "This place isn't far out, but the town will never come this way, not across two railroad tracks and the river bridge. That's why Elliot wouldn't touch it," he went on, determined that there should be no more evading, that Anne must learn to live openly with the thing she had been making into a secret pain. "Elliot is a canny chap. I don't know what happened to him after the war but something put a mighty relentless look into his eyes."

"I know. He told me," Anne said. "He came back after almost three years in the camp and a long time in a hospital, and he found his wife had a child—two years old."

"So he told you that?"

"Nobody else knows—not even Aunt Laura."

"But he went back there. He hasn't showed up in town for some time."

"Dad, he told me he was crazy about the little thing. Can you imagine anybody being as generous as that?"

"Kids aren't to blame for the sins of their elders, Anne. Well, here's the famous farm. Nobody on it—that's why Joan is so anxious to get rid of it, no doubt."

"Drive in, Dad. Maybe we can see a little by the headlights.
There's water—that little creek we just crossed. Deke would adore that."

"He'd dam it up and have a swimming hole." Harrison got out and opened a sagging, wooden gate. A rutted lane ambled up a slope between two rows of young maples. The house hugged the slope, long and low, with chimneys at either end and a porch all along the front. It had been painted white once but was shabby now.
"Well, there it is," he said tone-lessly. "When the Hammer is lived here, long before you were born, it was quite a place."

"It's so still out here! It's kind of restful, isn't it? And look," she cried, as Harrison drove the car close to the doorstep and backed to turn around, "you can see the whole town from here. All the lights and everything!"

Up in Boston, they're telling about the millionaire copper man from Montana who journeyed to Washington to see the sights. His senator dutifully guided him through the National Art Gallery, the Supreme Court, the Smithsonian Institution, and such-like, and then proposed, "Now let's go to the Capitol." The copper man glum to this point, brightened perceptibly, and said, "That's a swell idea. I haven't seen a good movie in months."

Arthur Kober sent his mother to a Catskill hotel for a vacation one Summer but she didn't cotton to the place. "The food is absolute poison," she reported, "and such small portions!" When she returned to New York, she added, "The kitchen in that hotel must have been awfully clean, though. Everything tasted like soap!"

"yup," "yeah" and "nope." The answers so appear in the official transcript.

The fact is that the new Navy chief is distinctly the "old salt" variety, and was handicapped when he couldn't go much farther in profanity than saying that Russian subs are "capable of raising a lot of hell." A good many of the remarks for which he is famous in the Navy can't be quoted.

Fechteler's main interests also tend to be those of an old-time Navy man—he has never been a submariner or an aviator. He said at a press conference he had not had time to look into the subject of guided missiles.

However, he has plenty of experts around him who are up on the latest subjects, and he is anxious to disprove any impression that he is merely a "battleship admiral."

● NEW MIG ON THE WAY?—Pentagon experts are wondering if the increasing air activity over Korea isn't a sign that the Communists are getting ready to launch their new MIG-19 fighter plane into battle.

The Red airmen have become far more aggressive in recent weeks and for the first time in months have operated outside of "MIG Alley" in the northwest corner of the peninsula.

The United States experts believe this may mean Communist pilots are trying to log valuable air time and experience before changing over to the speedier MIG-19.

The new aircraft, pictures of which have just reached the United States, appears capable of piercing the sonic wall. It is said to be more maneuverable and to have a higher rate of climb than any United Nations jet now in use in Korea.

The plane is believed to be powered by improved Soviet models of either the British Rolls-Royce or "Nene" jet engine. It is also believed to carry heavier firepower than the present MIG-15—perhaps as many as four 32-millimeter rapid-fire cannon.

Truman to Run Again, Say Political Experts

Loyalty to His Party Seen Deciding Factor

Special to Central Press
WASHINGTON—Political experts see increasing indications that President Truman will seek re-election although the Chief Executive stays mum on the subject.

Many of the experts go along with reports that Mr. Truman actually has no personal desire for another White House term but argue that his loyalty to party, learned in the Kansas City school, will force him into the campaign.

The experts point out that Democratic chances of staying in power depend largely on another Truman "whistle stop" campaign. They also depend on his making the race, rather than some newcomer, even one sponsored by the present chief executive.

With those factors in mind, politicians say they are convinced Mr. Truman will decide to run again. They say he will not let down his fellow politicians if he can be convinced that is the only way the Democrats can stick in the saddle.

Two More Women Take Top Honors In Daily Double Pumpkin Pie Competition

Frigidaire Range Is Grand Prize

Two more women in the vicinity have chalked up wins in the two pie baking contests being conducted simultaneously in the showrooms of Circleville Appliance Co.

There were fewer entries on the second day, but the same number of winners.

Mrs. Luther Bower received first award in the regular contest to make her eligible to compete in Saturday's finals. Mrs. George L. Lel took second honors and Mrs. R. E. Gosnell, third.

Using Crustquick and either Mozart or Country Colonel Pumpkin Myrtle Lingo, came through with a winning pie in the second contest. Mrs. Gosnell, who was also one of Wednesday's winners, won second and Mrs. Bower, third.

Cash awards of first prize, $5; second, $3 and third, $2 are awarded in the regular contest. Merchandise prizes on display in the Circleville Appliance Co., are given to winners in the contest sponsored by General Mills. First prize is a Betty Crocker toaster; second, a Betty Crocker Tru-Heat iron and third, a Betty Crocker cookbook.

First place winners in each contest each day will be eligible to take a pie for Saturday's contest which carries a grand prize of a Frigidaire electric range.

On Saturday, contestants may use any ingredients for making their pumpkin pies.

Ohio Poetry Week Marked By Grange

Ohio Poetry Week was celebrated at a meeting of Nebraska Grange held Tuesday evening with a program arranged by Mrs. Ralph Dunkel.

Elaine Quillen gave an address relating facts about Ohio's poets and poems that made them famous. The birthday of James Whitcomb Riley, famous Hoosier poet, was commemorated by reading his poem, "When the Frost Is On the Pumpkin."

Also a part of the program was a talk and demonstration on flower arranging by Mrs. Carl Scothern.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Jay Hay, John Hedges and Sarah Jane Hedges.

Robert Schwartz, associate county agent, showed a film, "A Step Saving Kitchen" and suggested ways farmers may save steps in doing their chores.

Election of officers will be held at the November meeting and a good attendance is desired.

AN INTERNATIONAL flavor was added to the judging of the Little Miss Pumpkin Show candidates Wednesday afternoon. Two exchange students in Ohio State university and the OSU football coach's wife were the judges. As they appeared on the judging platform, they were, left to right: Miss Seela Chayanayayodhin from Thailand, Mrs. Woody Hayes and Miss Ruth Hembekides from Syria.

Trio Of Judges, From 3 Lands, Select Winners

"No one can say we didn't pick impartial judges for this contest," reported one of the Jaycees assisting with getting the little girls on and off the platform in the Little Miss Pumpkin Show contest.

And that seemed to be the opinion of both participants and witnesses of the contest.

Only one of the judges had ever been in Circleville before Wednesday afternoon and that was Mrs. Woody Hayes, wife of Ohio State's head football coach who attended a dinner meeting this Summer with her husband who was guest speaker at the affair.

Mrs. Hayes, wearing an orchid corsage, said, "I'm glad to be back in Circleville, I always enjoy coming here."

The other two judges, whose homes are thousands of miles from here, are both students in Ohio State university.

Miss Ruth Hembekides, a native of Lebanon, Syria is doing graduate work at the university in dietetics and expects to teach when she returns to her native land.

The third judge was Miss Seela Chayanayayodhin of Thailand, the country formerly known as Siam.

Also a student at the State university, Miss Chayanayayodhin is doing graduate work and will return to her own country as a teacher.

Gourds For Many Uses Included In Exhibition

Do you know the difference between a "Dishrag" and a "Dolphin"? a "Cavesman Club" and a "Crown of Thorns"?

Gourds bearing these picturesque names are on display at a new addition to the Pumpkin Show family of exhibits, held in Circleville for the first time this year.

Exhibited by Ohio Gourd Society, the display features all varieties of gourds and demonstrates their use for decorative purposes as well as their utility in the home and garden.

Included in the display are muffin cups, megaphones, bird houses and feeders, canteen, bowls and baskets.

Mrs. R. L. Ross of Talmadge and Mrs. Howard Hamlin of Columbus, both well-known gourd enthusiasts, have several arrangements in the exhibit and are also on hand at Beckett Implement Co., to explain all phases of gourd culture.

The competition, arranged by William Cook of Park Place, state exhibit chairman includes several exhibitions by localities which were awarded prizes. Winners from Circleville and vicinity are:

Mrs. Donald H. Watt, second prize in Class II, display for Thanksgiving table setting; Mrs. Watt, second and Mrs. Fred Cook, fourth, in Class III for most artistic composition using a gourd container.

Mrs. John Mast, third award in Class VII, most artistic specimen Turban or Turkecap gourd; Mrs. Cook, first prize for largest 1951 hardshell gourd and Mrs. John Mast, second prize for 1951 spoon gourds.

A special prize is being awarded to Mark List of Circleville Route 1 for his display of gourds—all grown in his own garden.

Hoosiers Arrive For Joust With 'Improved' Bucks

COLUMBUS, Oct. 19—Indiana's Hoosiers came loping into Columbus today to test Ohio State's football scoring power.

The Indiana team, with a 1-2 record, will provide the Buckeyes with game number four and Coach Woody Hayes' second conference contest before an expected attendance tomorrow of 75,000 fans.

The contest, a must for Hayes and one in which the Bucks' scoring potential is expected to reach maximum expression, will be the first to be televised from Columbus this season.

Ohio, holding a 1-1-1 record to date, comes from a 6-6 tie at Wisconsin while the Hoosiers' last game found them on the short end of a 33-14 score against Michigan.

Hayes, following yesterday's practice session, told sports scribes:

"We accomplished everything that we wanted to this week and we should do all right Saturday against Indiana."

CHS Seeks 5th Win In Friday Test

Tigers To Have Weight Advantage

Circleville Tiger gridgers will be seeking their fifth win in six starts this season Friday night when they play host to invading St. Charles of Columbus.

To date, the Tiger 11 has posted victories over Lancaster, Wilmington, Hillsboro and Monroe during the last four weeks after having dropped a 6-0 decision to Holy Rosary of Columbus in its season opener.

And for the first time since the opener, Circleville's starting lineup for Friday night will be the same as the preceding week, according to Coach Steve Brudzinski.

The Tiger team wrapped up its pre-game practices Thursday night in an under-the-lights session on the CHS gridiron.

"The boys are not in the best possible shape," Brudzinski admitted Friday.

"THEY ALL have collections of bruises and aching muscles going into the game."

Circleville's lack of depth is largely responsible for the collection of minor hurts, since many of the CHS'ers must play almost all 48 minutes without letup or relief.

And the Tigers have given up their customary scrimmages during the last two weeks of practice in order to keep the injured list at a minimum.

But the Tigers will have several advantages over the invading St. Charles gridgers in the Friday test.

Circleville is expected to have a weight edge over the invaders; it has a better won and lost record; and it will have the home crowd.

On the other hand, St. Charles will have speed with its lack of bulk and the incentive of having been the only team last year to beat the Tigers.

AS A SECOND-hand comparison, St. Charles bested Holy Rosary gridgers last week by a 38-13 margin, while Circleville was bested by Rosary 6-0.

But again, St. Charles suffered a 14-7 defeat at the hands of Upper Arlington, while the Tigers whopped the Arlington gridgers 36-0 in a preseason practice tilt at Arlington.

Circleville high school's crack marching band is to be featured in the halftime ceremony at the game, performing after their strenuous workout during this year's Pumpkin Show.

And the scoreboard clock has been fixed, according to school officials. The clock was slow last week, causing the teams to play at least an extra nine minutes of ball before officials caught on.

Probable starting lineups for both Circleville and St. Charles in Friday's contest, with kickoff time at 8 p. m., are:

Circleville

Ends—Charles Johnson and Jim Cook.

Tackles—Bill Gillis and Mike Brown.

Guards—John Cockrell and Lloyd Brannon.

Center—Gerald Thomas.

Quarterback—Jerry Rooney.

Halfbacks—Jerry Pritchard and Paul Hill or Fred Davis.

Fullback—Dave Coffland.

St. Charles

Ends—Chuck King and Dick Worleski or Joe Younk.

Tackles—Tom Ryan and Ed Alton.

Guards—Buddy Ruffing and Jack O'Reilly.

Center—Sonny Holocher.

Quarterback—Paul Burke or Ward Sherron.

Halfbacks—Neil O'Hara and Jack Beuman or Dick DeShetler.

Fullback—Art Lee.

Junior Tigers Post 7-0 Win Over Lancaster

Circleville's junior Red and Black Tiger team continued its unblemished skein of victories for this season Thursday by posting a 7-0 win over Lancaster reservists at Lancaster.

The victory gave the CHS subs a record of four wins and one tie in five starts to date this year.

Neither team was able to score during the first half of Thursday's tiff while Circleville blasted through with its game-winning tally in the third frame.

Circleville began its scoring play on the Lancaster 20-yard line, where quarterback Tom Elsea tossed a 10-yard pass into the arms of Mike Rooney. Rooney covered the remaining distance on the ground.

THE EXTRA point was tallied by George Johnson on a buck through tackle, giving the junior Tiger team its 7-0 margin.

Both teams threatened down to within the opposition's 20 several times during the encounter, while Circleville once bulldozed through on a sustained march down to the Lancaster 3. But firm lines prevented any more scoring in the contest.

Thursday's victory over the Junior Golden Gales gave the Tigers the following season mark to date: 21-19 over Columbus Central; 12-7 over Upper Arlington; 6-6 with Chillicothe; 14-6 over Washington C. H.; and 7-0 over Lancaster.

The Junior Tigers will travel to Chillicothe next Wednesday afternoon to complete their 1951 season in a match against the junior Cavalier team. The game is to begin at about 4 p. m.

Lineup for Circleville in Thursday's junior victory follows:

Ends—Jim Leist, Mike Rooney.

Tackles—Roy Murray, Jim Arledge, Joe Blue, Jerry Anderson.

Guards—Gene Thomsen, George Troutman, Bob Reber, Bill Brannon.

Centers—Walt Heine, Jack Fowler.

Backs—Tom Elsea, George Johnson, Ronnie Bennington, Charles Rose, David Bircher, Tom Strawser.

Player Tax Relief Asked

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 — Fred Hutchinson, Detroit Tiger pitcher, asked Congress today to allow major league baseball players income tax deductions for "depreciation" to compensate for their limited careers.

Hutchinson, American League player representative, called the income tax application "one of the biggest injustices of major league baseball," and explained that big

Bulldog Cagers To Play Host To 'Preview'

In the midst of Pumpkin Show and at the height of the football season, Pickaway County schools are preparing for their 1951-52 basketball season.

Principal among the county schools laying plans for the coming season is New Holland, whose Bulldog court crew will play host to a basketball preview Wednesday night.

The Bulldogs are to play host to cagers from Atlanta, Madison Mills and Good Hope during the preview, slated to get underway at about 7:30 p. m. in the Bulldog gym.

Each team is to meet each of the other teams for one full quarter of play during the evening, six full quarters of varsity ball planned for the preview fans.

MEANWHILE, the other Pickaway County cagers are continuing their preseason workouts for the opening of the 1951-52 county basketball league, slated to begin Nov. 9.

Many of the teams, however, will have warmup games scheduled league players have an average career of five years.

Nov. 2 until the league - opening date.

Slated to meet on opening night of this year's league season are: Williamsport at Walnut; Pickaway at Scioto; Saltercreek at Atlanta; and Ashville at Jackson.

3 Big 10 Stars Await Cage Test

CHICAGO, Oct. 19—Three former Big Ten All-America basketball players will be in the starting lineup when the 1951 College All-Stars meet the Rochester Royals, pro champions in Chicago Stadium tonight.

They are Ray Ragelis of Northwestern, Don Sunderlage of Illinois, and Whitey Skoog of Minnesota.

Ernie Barrett of Kansas State and Mel Hutchins of Brigham Young will be the other All-Star starters.

Brownies 'Up' For Steelers

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19 — The Cleveland Browns are expected to be in their best physical shape of the young National Football League season when they face the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday.

Ever since the College All-Star game in August, the Browns have had one injury after another to key players, but now find themselves a better team as a result.

Hoosiers Arrive For Joust With 'Improved' Bucks

COLUMBUS, Oct. 19—Indiana's Hoosiers came today to Ohio State's football stadium to test Ohio State's football scoring power.

The Indiana team, with a 1-2 record, will provide the Buckeyes with game number four and Coach Woody Hayes' second conference contest before an expected attendance tomorrow of 75,000 fans.

CHS Seeks 5th Win In Friday Test

Tigers To Have Weight Advantage

Circleville Tiger gridders will be seeking their fifth win in six starts this season Friday night when they play host to invading St. Charles of Columbus.

To date, the Tiger 11 has posted victories over Lancaster, Wilmington, Hillsboro and Monroe during the last four weeks after having dropped a 6-0 decision to Holy Rosary of Columbus in its season opener.

And for the first time since the opener, Circleville's starting lineup for Friday night will be the same as the preceding week, according to Coach Steve Brudzinski.

The Tiger team wrapped up its pre-game practices Thursday night in an under-the-lights session on the CHS gridiron.

"The boys are not in the best possible shape," Brudzinski admitted Friday.

"THEY ALL have collections of bruises and aching muscles going into the game."

Circleville's lack of depth is largely responsible for the collection of minor hurts, since many of the CHS'ers must play almost all 48 minutes without letup or relief.

And the Tigers have given up their customary scrimmages during the last two weeks of practice in order to keep the injured list at a minimum.

But the Tigers will have several advantages over the invading St. Charles gridders in the Friday test.

Circleville is expected to have a weight edge over the invaders; it has a better won and lost record; and it will have the home crowd.

On the other hand, St. Charles will have speed with its lack of bulk and the incentive of having been the only team last year to beat the Tigers.

AS A SECOND-hand comparison, St. Charles bested Holy Rosary gridders last week by a 38-18 margin, while Circleville was bested by Rosary 6-0.

But again, St. Charles suffered a 14-7 defeat at the hands of Upper Arlington, while the Tigers whopped the Arlington gridders 36-0 in a preseason practice tilt at Arlington.

Circleville high school's crack marching band is to be featured in the halftime ceremony at the game, performing after their strenuous workout during this year's Pumpkin Show.

And the scoreboard clock has been fixed, according to school officials. The clock was slow last week, causing the teams to play at least an extra nine minutes of ball before officials caught on.

Probable starting lineups for both Circleville and St. Charles in Friday's contest, with kickoff time at 8 p. m., are:

Circleville
Ends—Charles Johnson and Jim Cook.
Tackles—Bill Gillis and Mike Brown.
Guards—John Cockrell and Lloyd Brannon.
Center—Gerald Thomas.
Quarterback—Jerry Rooney.
Halfbacks—Jerry Pritchard and Paul Hill or Fred Davis.
Fullback—Dave Coffland.

St. Charles
Ends—Chuck King and Dick Worleski or Joe Young.
Tackles—Tom Ryan and Ed Alton.
Guards—Buddy Ruffing and Jack O'Reilly.
Center—Sonny Holocher.
Quarterback—Paul Burke or Ward Sherron.
Halfbacks—Neil O'Hara and Jack Beuman or Dick DeShetler.
Fullback—Art Lee.

Junior Tigers Post 7-0 Win Over Lancaster

Circleville's junior Red and Black Tiger team continued its unblemished streak of victories for this season Thursday by posting a 7-0 win over Lancaster reservists at Lancaster.

The victory gave the CHS subs a record of four wins and one tie in five starts to date this year.

Neither team was able to score during the first half of Thursday's tiff while Circleville blasted through with its game-winning tally in the third frame.

Circleville began its scoring play on the Lancaster 20-yard line, where quarterback Tom Elisea tossed a 10-yard pass into the arms of Mike Rooney. Rooney covered the remaining distance on the ground.

THE EXTRA point was tallied by George Johnson on a buck through tackle, giving the junior Tiger team its 7-0 margin.

Both teams threatened down to within the opposition's 20 several times during the encounter, while Circleville once bulled through on a sustained march down to the Lancaster 3. But firm lines prevented any more scoring in the contest.

Thursday's victory over the Junior Golden Gales gave the Tigers the following season mark to date: 21-19 over Columbus Central; 12-7 over Upper Arlington; 6-6 with Chillicothe; 7-0 over Washington C. H.; and 14-0 over Lancaster.

The junior Tigers will travel to Chillicothe next Wednesday afternoon to complete their 1951 season in a match against the junior Cavalier team. The game is to begin at about 4 p. m.

Lineup for Circleville in Thursday's junior victory follows:
Ends—Jim Leist, Mike Rooney.
Tackles—Roy Murray, Jim Arledge, Joe Blue, Jerry Anderson.
Guards—Gene Thompson, George Troutman, Bob Reber, Bill Brannon.
Centers—Walt Heine, Jack Fowler.

Backs—Tom Elisea, George Johnson, Ronnie Bennington, Charles Rose, David Bircher, Tom Strawser.

Player Tax Relief Asked
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 — Fred Hutchinson, Detroit Tiger pitcher, asked Congress today to allow major league baseball players income tax deductions for "depreciation" to compensate for their limited careers.

Hutchinson, American League player representative, called the income tax application "one of the biggest injustices of major league baseball," and explained that big

Bulldog Cagers To Play Host To 'Preview'

In the midst of Pumpkin Show and at the height of the football season, Pickaway County schools are preparing for their 1951-52 basketball season.

Principal among the county schools laying plans for the coming cage season is New Holland, whose Bulldog court crew will play host to a basketball preview Wednesday night.

The Bulldogs are to play host to cagers from Atlanta, Madison Mills and Good Hope during the preview, slated to get underway at about 7:30 p. m. in the Bulldog gym.

Each team is to meet each of the other teams for one full quarter of play during the evening, six full quarters of varsity ball planned for the preview fans.

MEANWHILE, the other Pickaway County cage teams are continuing their preseason workouts for the opening of the 1951-52 county basketball league, slated to begin Nov. 9.

Many of the teams, however, will have warmup games scheduled league players have an average career of five years.

3 Big 10 Stars Await Cage Test

CHICAGO, Oct. 19—Three former Big Ten All-America basketball players will be in the starting lineup when the 1951 College All-Stars meet the Rochester Royals, pro champions in Chicago Stadium tonight.

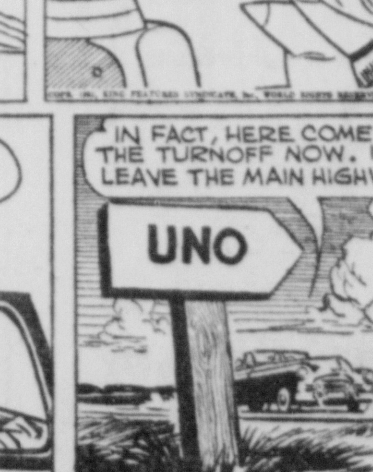

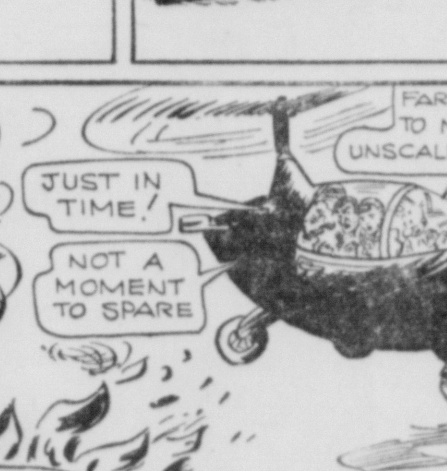

They are Ray Agell of Northwestern, Don Sunderlage of Illinois, and Whitey Skoog of Minnesota.

Ernie Barrett of Kansas State and Mel Hutchins of Brigham Young will be the other All-Star starters.

Brownies 'Up' For Steelers

CLEVELAND, Oct. 19 — The Cleveland Browns are expected to be in their best physical shape of the young National Football League season when they face the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday.

Ever since the College All-Star game in August, the Browns have had one injury after another to key players, but now find themselves a better team as a result.

'Peter Pumpkin Eater' Theme Wins Window Trim Contest

Griffiths Given Nod In Field Of 29

Penney Display Wins Second

Griffith Floorcovering Store of West Main street won the top award in this year's Circleville Pumpkin Show window dressing contest.

The championship window was based on the old nursery rhyme "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater" with decorative illustrations to match.

Griffith window consisted of a large, paper mache pumpkin furnished with rug, chairs and television set, all in miniature.

Outside the house are two dolls to represent Peter and his unmanageable wife, the couple located in a rustic scene amid pumpkins, fender shocks and leaves.

But the keynote to the championship window was the following placard:

"Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater, Had a wife but couldn't keep her, Put her in a pumpkin shell, And there he kept her very well."

To that, Griffith had added the following:

"He didn't keep her under lock and key, He kept her happy and contented, He equipped the pumpkin at Griffiths store, And they'll keep living happy for evermore."

OTHER PRIZE-winning windows in this year's contest rated about the same as last year's competition with only 29 decorated windows from which to choose, were: J. C. Penney Co., second; Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., third; Goldsmith's clothing store, fourth; Jim Brown store, fifth; City Loan, sixth; Sharf's women's apparel, seventh; and Hill 1 m p l e m e n t, eighth.

This year's contest was again under direction of Paul Hang.

The display in the Penney window was prepared by Pickaway Township school youngsters, exhibiting a fall harvest scene in Pickaway County.

The display was complete with farmhouse, barns, livestock and the harvesting of candy pumpkins in a cornfield.

Columbus and Southern Ohio's display was a representation of the horn of plenty in Pickaway County, set in a Fall setting.

Cascading from the mouth of the horn were all kinds of fruits, including pumpkin fruits and vegetables.

Goldsmith's display consisted of a typical fashion dress of the Gay Nineties with accompanying accessories, blending against a background of modern day dresses and apparel.

THE JIM BROWN store display was in two parts, the first a rural scene of woodcutters chopping in a Fall setting to produce logs for a comfortable fire in the other portion of the display.

City Loan's window dressing dealt with work of Ashville Cub Pack 130, complete with work of the youngsters on leathercraft, ceramics, achievement records and a campfire.

Sharf's store employed the pumpkin theme of the Cinderella story, with a team of six white toy horses harnessed to a pumpkin shell in which a richly dressed doll rode in state.

lement window was a replica of an Ohio roadside park, prepared by Pickaway County Garden Club.

Actually, the display was set up to represent the proposed new roadside park which is to be constructed soon on Route 23 north of South Bloomfield, the county's first wayside stopping place.

Judges for this year's window dressing contest were Norman Edwards of Columbus, a kitchen equipment agent, and Tom Carlowe of Lancaster, an auto dealer.

BLUE RIBBON DAIRY

315 S. PICKAWAY ST.

Anyone who knows his statistics will tell you that the two peoples—Americans and Scandinavians—who drink the most milk per capita are the world's healthiest peoples! And because the living habits of Americans and of Swedes, Danes and Norwegians differ in other respects; it's pretty certain that their big milk diets can claim the credit for health and long life. Remember that milk is the greatest low cost energy provider in the world—the perfect food for every age.
